HIKING TRAIL TO GUNUNG IRAU

Organised by Highway and Transportation Engineering Technical Division

**This hike is organized in conjunction with the "3 in 1 (Technical, Health and Hiking) Trip to Cameron Highlands from 30 Sept to 2 Oct 2011, jointly organized by the Standing Committee on Welfare and Service Matters and Highway & Transportation Engineering Technical Division. Participants who signed up for the 3 in 1 trip are exempted from paying the commitment fee. **

Gunung Irau is the 15th highest mountain in Malaysia (2110m). The peak has a border marker shared by 2 states - Pahang and Perak. It is the location for several outdoor scenes from the 2005 Malay blockbuster 'Puteri Gunung Ledang'. You will need to hike about 4 hours to reach Gunung Irau from the road. The road is famed for being the highest road in Peninsular Malaysia. Mossy forest and fairyland, cold wind and misty clouds are some of the wonders of Gunung Irau.
