BACKGROUND

The National Autism Society of Malaysia (NASOM) is a society formed in 1987 by a group of parents and professionals with the aim to deliver lifespan services to the community of persons suffering from autism. It was registered on 3rd March 1987 as a national charitable organization and it strives to provide a range of support services to assist people living with autism, especially children and their immediate family members. The core objective of NASOM is to offer services to people with autism through various services and programmes. These services and programmes are results oriented and emphasis is on the acquisition of skills and changes in behaviour. The services and programmes that offer are Vocational Programme, Residential Programme, Early Intervention Programme, Mainstreaming Programme, Pre-vocational Programme, Assessment and Diagnosis, Therapy Programmes Transition Programme

At NASOM they provide the needed information, intervention and a range of services to meet the needs of children with autism. With the right support at the right time, people with autism can live rewarding and fulfilling lives. They can achieve great things, but only if they are supported by people who believe in their potential. They need all kinds of resources from land, buildings, equipment, money and volunteers.
