

UNMC-IEM Student Section won ‘The Best Academic Society’

by Dr Hii Ching Lik

Dr Hii Ching Lik is currently the student advisor of the Chemical and Environmental Engineering in UNMC.

The UNMC-IEM Student Section was awarded ‘The Best Academic Society’ by the Students Association during the University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus Royal Ball Dinner and Awards Night (22nd April 2017). The committee (Session 2016/17) is chaired by Mr Lim Yu Jun (Year 3, Mechanical Engineering) and current student advisor is Associate Professor Dr Hii Ching Lik (Chemical and Environmental Engineering).

The vision of the Student Section is to become ‘Leader of Engineering Activities’ and some recent activities that have been organized are such as Engineering Carnival Week, Engineering Career Day, UNMC Chem-E Car Competition and UltiMake Makerthon.

Group photo with the students