SYNOPSIS

KLCC Projeks Sdn Bhd (KLCCP) received the ISO 37001:2016 Anti – Bribery Management System (ABMS) certificate in January 2019.

The ISO 37001:2016 was designed to help an organization to establish, implement, maintain and improve anti-bribery compliance program or management system through series of measures and controls that represent global anti-corruption good practice. Therefore, it benefits in reducing bribery risk by demonstrating a culture on integrity, transparency, openness compliance.

In support of the above, KLCCP has established an anti-bribery framework objectively:-

- To address risk and opportunities to reduce or prevent undesired effects relevant to the anti-bribery objectives
- To monitor the effectiveness of the ABMS
- To achieve continual improvement of the ABMS

and this framework has been embedded into Policies & Procedures, System & Processes and People & Culture.

Furthermore, KLCCP is proudly to promote the adequate procedures of guiding principles as follows:-

T – Top Level Commitment
R – Risk Assessment
U - Undertake Control Measures
S – Systematic Review, Monitoring & Enforcement
T – Training & Communication
