BACKGROUND

This is an introductory course as a precursor to the more detailed courses on the FIDIC Forms, JKR Forms and the AIAC Forms of Contract for Turnkey/Design & Build Contracts.

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE

- To acquaint participants with the important aspects of these special and important types of contracts which are being used not only for infrastructure projects e.g. the Pan Borneo Highway, etc. but also large scale engineering and construction contracts;
- To familiarize participants with the recommended procedures for properly implementing/managing such contracts;
- To create awareness on the pitfalls and problem areas affecting the implementation/management of the common Turnkey/Design & Build Contracts used in this country; and
- To expose participants to contemporary case studies and the applicable law.
