Location: Jalan Tan Hiok Nee, Bandar Johor Bahru

Distance: 4.4 km (12 mins drive)

GRAB Fee: MYR10++

Travel south to the tranquil and yet modern town at Johor Bahru and you'll be amazed by the capital of Johor that sets itself in the chase of urban development. As the second largest city in Malaysia, the unequalled pulse of Johor Bahru lies alongside the Segget River where cultural diversity flows through the bank down to Straits of Johor. What was previously a quaint old lane is awarded heritage street by the Johor State Government in 2009 turning Jalan Tan Hiok Nee into a trendy historical venue with traditional houses and activities.

LAMAN MAHKOTA ISTANA BUKIT SERENE

Location: Jalan Straits View, Bukit Serene, 80200 Johor Bahru, Johor

Distance: 8 km (15 mins drive)

GRAB Fee: MYR9++

Royal palaces in Malaysia have an undeniable charm and Istana Bukit Serene in JB is just one of the many. Built in 1933, it features Art Deco style architecture, intricate carvings and manicured lawns. The building is currently the official residence of the Sultan of Johor, therefore, is not open to the public. However, many visitors still come by to check out the beautiful exterior and take pictures here - the highlight would be the unique large arch topped with a model of the Sultan's crown.
