

Introduction to Arbitration in Malaysia, Basic Procedures and Processes in Arbitration 7 February 2026@ C&S Room (2nd Floor, Wisma IEM)

SYNOPSIS:

This session provides an introductory overview of arbitration in Malaysia, outlining the legal framework governing arbitration and the key roles of the parties involved. It covers the fundamental procedures and processes, from the arbitration agreement and appointment of arbitrators to the conduct of proceedings and the issuance and enforcement of arbitral awards. The programme is designed to offer participants a practical and foundational understanding of arbitration, particularly for those new to the field.

Brandon is a partner of Messrs. Azman Davidson & Co. Brandon's areas of practice are in Construction Litigation and Tax Litigation. Brandon has advised and acted for employers and contractors on construction issues in various arbitration matters, court matters and CIPAA adjudications. He has also advised and acted for taxpayers in various income tax appeals in the Special Commissioners of Income Tax, High Court and Court of Appeal.
