

WEBINAR TALK

PIPELINE SAFETY REGULATIONS – A SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

Malaysia's pipeline safety framework must evolve to address rising public exposure and urban development. This session highlights the shared responsibilities among operators, authorities, developers, and the public – advocating risk based to strengthen public safety while sustaining national energy infrastructure.

SATURDAY

November 14, 2026

TIME

At 09.00 AM – 11.00 AM

WEBINAR

REGISTER NOW

www.myiem.org.my sitiaisyah@iem.org.my

03-78900133

Ir. Siti Aishah
Speaker

Ir. Siti Aishah is a UK Chartered Engineer with a B.Sc. in Civil Engineering from Universiti Teknologi PETRONAS and experienced pipeline specialist with over 18 years of expertise in engineering design, project execution, EPCIC delivery, and advanced pipeline technologies across PETRONAS projects.

Ts. Mohamed Ali Abdullah
Speaker

Ts. Mohamed Ali Abdullah is an experienced pipeline professional with 17+ years' expertise and holds a B.Sc. in Civil Engineering from Universiti Teknologi PETRONAS (UTP), providing technical leadership in pipeline integrity, operational excellence, digitalisation, asset reliability and strategic technology initiatives across PETRONAS