Introduction OSC 3.0

Model OSC 3.0 was introduced in 2014 in order to facilitate construction permits in Peninsular Malaysia. In 2007, the OSC Model has been approved to enhance the effectiveness of the development approval process by local authorities and external technical agency. The difference between OSC 3.0 and the previous model is that 3.0 includes application plan approval until the building / premises can be occupied and CCC certificates obtained. OSC 3.0 will be used in all 98 localities (local authorities and external technical agencies) throughout Malaysia from June 2014.

Objective

Principal Submitting Person (PSP) / Submitting Person (SP) to adapt with OSC 3.0
