SYNOPSIS

The one day course will expose the participants to the basic knowledge of RSA practice in Malaysia. The RSA was started in Malaysia in 1990 as one of the efforts initiated by JKR to reduce accident fatalities in Malaysia. This measure is primarily targeted at the road environment factor which contributed more than 20% to the incidents of road accidents. Currently Malaysia has a road fatality of about 6500 per annum of which 60% are motorcyclists. This is a huge economic loss to the country. Road engineers involved in design and construction can play a vital role in making the roads safer to the users by incorporating safety auditing. The various stages of RSA will be highlighted and the salient features which contributed to better safety will be discussed. The format of the reports to be prepared will also be elaborated. The seminar will give an overall view to those who are keen to pursue the field of RSA as a specialisation in their careers.
